

Examroama Guess the JellyBean competition!

Competition	Jellybean Guessing Game
Promoter	Flinders University Library
Website	https://blogs.flinders.edu.au/library/2018/10/23/head-library-examorama/
Entry Restrictions	Entry is restricted to current Flinders University students. By entering the competition, you agree to pose for a promotional photo with the prize should you win – these photos will be used for Flinders University Library social media
Competition Period	Commences: Monday 29 th of October 2018 Ends: Friday 16 th of November 2018 (9:00pm)
Entry Method	Entrants must submit their entries either in-person at any of the Library locations (Central, Sturt, Medical), or by commenting on relevant Social Media posts made by the Library's official facebook and twitter accounts.
Judging Details	Flinders University Library will have final say in judgement. If multiple students submit correct entries, the prize will be awarded by a raffle draw of eligible entries
Prize	Four prizes shall be awarded to four individual winners, decided by location of entry: Central Library, Sturt Library, Medical Library, and Social Media.
	Prize Examorama Jar of Jellybeans + surprise
	Value Money-can't-buy experience
Winner Notification	The winner will be notified by Flinders University Library staff on Monday 19 th of November 2018. If there is a draw (i.e: more than one entrant has guessed the exact number of jellybeans correctly) a tie-breaking raffle will be held with eligible entries. Winners will be notified via email in the first instance, phone in the second instance, and telepathy in the third instance. In addition, the Social Media winner may be contacted via DM or comment in the relevant social media platform. The winners of the Central, Sturt and Medical competitions will need to collect their prize from the relevant Library branch. The Social Media prize may be delivered to an Australian address if the winner cannot attend the Central Library in person.